Spring horse show for benefit of war sufferers
leading affair of the week.

SOCIETY is interested, more than usual, in the annual spring Horse Show, to be held to-morrow, Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Durland's Riding Academy, for the proceeds from the exhibition this year are to be turned over to charity. Among those actively interested are Mrs. Richard Derby, chairman of the American Hostels for Refugees in Paris; Mrs. Willard D. Straight, Mrs. George Whitney, Miss Rosalie O'Brien, Philip J. Roosevelt and others.

The executive committee consists of Morgan J. O'Brien, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, C. Miffin Wharton, Alfred B. Maclay, William Halsted Van der Poel, J. Macy Willets, William Ziegler, Jr., and Esmond P. O'Brien. James W. Appleton and Henry W. Bull will judge the hunters and jumpers; E. S. Reynal and G. Miffin Wharton, polo ponies and ponies; E. Von der Horst Koch and H. K. Bloodgood, heavy harness class; James A. Marshall and R. Lawrence Smith, saddle horses, and Robert A. Fairbairn, light harness class.

Among those who have taken boxes are Reginald C. Vanderbilt, William Ziegler, Jr., Morgan J. O'Brien, Rufus L. Patterson, N. M. Pond, Mrs. J. Lloyd Derby, Philip J. Roosevelt, Mrs. Richard Derby, Mrs. George Whitney, G. Miffin Wharton, Mrs. Willard D. Straight, Henry W. Munroe, Alfred B. Maclay, J. Macy Willets, Miss J. A. Alexander, Esmond P. O'Brien, J. Campbell Thompson, William Halsted Van der Poel and Harry S. Ladew.

This is the first of the many spring sporting affairs which will attract society. The next one will be the annual hunter and pony races of the Rockaway Hunting Club at Hewlett Bay Park, Long Island. This meet will inaugurate the season on Long Island, which will include races at Belmont Park, Belmont Park Terminal, in the Wheatley Hills, and at the Piping Rock course. All but one of the six races of the Rockaway Hunting Club's meet are limited to gentlemen riders.

A week later—May 8—on the estate of Harry Payne Whitney, in the Wheatley Hills, there will take place the spring meeting of the Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association, on May 15 and 17 there will be racing at the Belmont Park Terminal, and on May 20 the season opens at Belmont Park. The meets at Piping Rock will take place on June 2 and 5.

On the opening day at Belmont Park the Motor Car Touring Society, of which Albert Eugene Gallatin is president, will make a run to the park. The members and their wives will be the guests of Mr. Gallatin at the Turf and Field Club at luncheon before the races. Many other luncheons will be given at the club on that day.
